

Arts Award photography competition terms and conditions

1. Who are we?

Trinity College London is a company (company registration no 2683033) and a registered charity in England and Wales (charity no. 1014792) and Scotland (charity no. SC049143) whose registered office is at the Blue Fin Building, 110 Southwark Street, London SE1 0TA, United Kingdom ('Trinity', 'we', 'our', 'us'). Trinity is holding and running an Arts Award photography competition.

2. What is the competition about?

The Arts Award photography competition for Advisers and Students offers the chance to have their work included in Arts Award's promotional and communication materials which have a UK-wide audience. Arts Award is seeking photographs which demonstrate creativity in action in the following individual categories

- Music
- Dance
- Drama/theatre
- Visual arts/craft
- Digital art/Mixed or other artforms ('Categories')

Advisers and Students have a chance to receive the prizes specified in condition 6 of these Terms and Conditions. By entering into this competition draw you agree to be legally bound by the Terms and Conditions set out below. Please read these carefully before entering and print and keep a paper/electronic copy for your records.

3. How do I enter the competition?

- The competition will run from 4pm GMT on Thursday 25 February 2021 (the "Opening Date") to 12 midnight GMT on Sunday 13 June 2021 (the "Closing Date") inclusive.
- All photographic submissions must be received by Trinity via the Trinity online survey pages at webpages
<https://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/NRW8CL/> (Advisers competition)
<https://www.smartsurvey.co.uk/s/CUFTVH/> (Students competition) by no later than 12 midnight GMT on the Closing Date. All photographic entries received after this time on the Closing Date are automatically disqualified.
- To enter the competition please visit the Trinity webpage at <https://learn.artsaward.org.uk/photo-competition>, read the photography competition brief and complete the online entry form (there is a separate application option for Advisers and for Students), upload your photograph(s) - along with the relevant completed, signed photo permission form(s) and supporting documentation(s) identifying each person in every photograph - and click to submit your entry before 12 midnight GMT on the Closing Date.

- d) Entrants will need to provide their name, address, email address and name of their Arts Award centre. If under 18, they will also need to provide their date of birth and a permission form to enter the competition signed by their parent/guardian.
- e) Trinity will not accept:
 - i. responsibility for competition entries that are lost, mislaid, damaged or delayed in transit, regardless of cause, including, for example, as a result of any equipment failure, technical malfunction, systems, satellite, network, server, computer hardware or software failure of any kind; or
 - ii. proof transmission as proof of receipt of entry to the competition.
- f) These Terms and Conditions are available on the Trinity website from the Opening Date to at least one month after the date that the results of the competition are announced.

4. Eligibility

- a) The competition is open to residents of England, Scotland and Wales who are: -

Arts Award advisers supporting young people to achieve Arts Award in England, Scotland or Wales who are linked to a registered Arts Award centre ('Advisers'); or

Arts Award students aged 25 or under who have not completed Arts Award adviser training at any level ('Students')

Students under 18 years of age must have written parental consent to enter this competition and all contact from Trinity will be made through the parent/guardian if selected as a winner.

- b) Advisers can submit up to five photographs for the competition. Students can submit up to three photographs for the competition. Entrants can only enter either the Advisers or the Student competition-not both. You can only win one prize.
- c) The competition is NOT open to:
 - i. Residents of Northern Ireland or Republic of Ireland;
 - ii. employees of Trinity or its subsidiary companies;
 - iii. employees of agents or suppliers of Trinity or its subsidiary companies, who are professionally connected with the competition or its administration; or
 - iv. members of the immediate families or households of (ii) and (iii) above.
- d) In entering the competition, you confirm that you are eligible to do so and eligible to claim the prize. Trinity may require you to provide proof that you are eligible to enter the competition.
- e) Trinity will not accept competition entries that are illegible, have been altered, reconstructed, forged or tampered with or are incomplete.
- f) Except as indicated in condition 4(a) above, entries on behalf of another person will not be accepted and joint submissions are not allowed.
- g) Trinity reserves all rights to disqualify you if your conduct is contrary to the spirit or intention of the competition.
- h) Competition entries cannot be returned.

5. Entry submissions

- a) All photographs must be original and not a combination of images. If the photograph(s) infringes any third-party copyright or contains any defamatory or otherwise unlawful matter, the entry will be rejected.
- b) All photographs must comply with the technical specification set out at the photography competition page.
- c) By submitting photographs to this competition, the entrant consents to their photographs being printed and published on Arts Award marketing and promotional material, educational resources, such as syllabuses and other free or paid-for resources, professional support materials, e.g. materials for examiners, moderators, assessors, presentations, training or research materials, Trinity's websites, or other media in support of Trinity's work, in presentations and for publicity and marketing purposes, including in advertisements. In consideration of the prize, irrevocably assigns to Trinity and its successors, the copyright and the exclusive, worldwide right to use the photograph(s).

6. Prizes and winners

Five Advisers and five students will be chosen by the judges as category winners and up to ten Advisers will be chosen for 'special commendation'. The results of the competition will be final, and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into.

- a) Advisers –each of the 5 category winners will receive a £100 Amazon voucher for the use by their school or organisation, (maximum 5 prizes); and
- b) Advisers -each of the 10 photographs judged for a 'special commendation' will receive a £100 Amazon voucher for the use by their school or organisation.
- c) Students – each of the 5 category winners will receive a £30 Amazon Voucher for their personal use (maximum 5 prizes).
- d) There is no cash alternative for the prizes and the prize is not negotiable or transferable.
- e) Trinity will contact the winners personally by 30 June 2021 using the email address provided with the competition entry. If you do not claim the prize by the appropriate deadline indicated in this condition 5(g), your claim will become invalid.
- f) Trinity will make all reasonable efforts to contact the winners. If you are a winner and cannot be contacted or are not available, Trinity reserves the right not to award your prize.
- g) Trinity does not accept any responsibility if you are not able to claim the prize.

7. Selection of winners

- a) The Advisers and Students competition entries will be judged separately by a panel of judges. The panel of judges, to be selected by Trinity College London, will include representatives of the Trinity's UK and Ireland marketing, development and support teams. The winners will be selected on merit from the photographs from all eligible entries and will be judged on the following criteria;

- Image quality - subject(s) in focus, scene well-illuminated, saved at appropriate size and resolution;
- Adherence to the Brief;
- Artistic merits and creative expression: good composition and framing;
- Creative use of lighting, colour and texture;

- Appropriateness of the style for use in Arts Award communication materials and resources;
- Means of delivering a positive message about Arts Award.

Advisers -The judging panel will select the best entry from each of the 5 categories and 10 (ten) entries worthy of special mention.

Students -the judging panel will select the best entry from each of the 5 categories

- b) We will announce the winners of the competition on the Arts Award website.
- c) If a selected winner is unable to be contacted after reasonable attempts have been made or, in the case of an entrant who is under 18 years of age, fails to provide written parental consent, Trinity College London reserves the right to offer the prize to another entrant.

8. Data protection and publicity

By entering this competition, you will be providing your personal information to Trinity and Trinity will process your personal information as set out in Trinity's online privacy statement available at <https://www.trinitycollege.com/page/data-protection>. In addition, Trinity will process your personal information to fulfil Trinity's obligations under these Terms and Conditions and to comply with the legal obligations to which we are subject in relation to conducting the competition and contacting you if you are a winner. If you have any questions or objections in relation to how we process your personal information and wish to contact us, please contact Trinity's Data Protection Officer at dpo@trinitycollege.com.

9. General

- a) If there is any reason to believe that there has been a breach of these Terms and Conditions, Trinity may, at its sole discretion, reserve the right to exclude you from participating in the competition judging.
- b) Trinity reserves the right to hold void, suspend, cancel, or amend the competition where it becomes necessary to do so.
- c) These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by English law, and the parties submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.